Match background

Winners of day one of UEFA EURO 2008, the Czech Republic and Portugal go into their encounter at the Stade de Genève seeking the second victory that, depending on the result between Switzerland and Turkey, could secure their place in the last eight with a game to spare.

- Both teams have an impressive recent pedigree on the European stage – the Czechs were semi-finalists in 2004 and runners-up in 1996, while Luiz Felipe Scolari's Portugal reached the final four years ago – and both set an early marker with victories on Saturday.

- Karel Brückner's Czech team defeated co-hosts Switzerland 1-0 in the opening match in Basel, substitute Václav Svěčkoš scoring the only goal after 71 minutes. Portugal then overtook them in the initial standings thanks to a 2-0 win against Turkey in Geneva, Pepe and Raul Meireles the scorers.

- This is a fixture that will stir memories of EURO '96™ and the only previous meeting between the countries – one settled in the Czechs' favour by a famous goal from Karel Poborský.

- Poborský's cheeky lob over Vítor Baía after 53 minutes secured a 1-0 victory for the Czechs in the quarter-final at Villa Park in Birmingham. Dusan Uhrin's team subsequently reached the final where they lost 2-1 to Germany.

- The teams for that quarter-final were:

Czech Republic: Petr Kouba, Radoslav Látal, Jan Suchopárek, Miroslav Kadlec, Václav Nemecek (Patrik Berger), Jirí Nemeč, Karel Poborský, Pavěk Kuka, Radek Bejbl, Michal Hornák, Vladimír Šmicer (Luboš Kubík).

Portugal: Vítor Baía, Carlos Secretário, Oceano Andrade Cruz (António Folha), Fernando Couto, João Pinto, Sá Pinto (José Domingos), Rui Costa, Dimas, Hélder, Paulo Sousa, Luís Figo (Jorge Cadete).

- Poborský had a spell with Portuguese side SL Benfica later in his career and eventually became his country's most capped player with 118 appearances.

- Looking further back, the former Czechoslovakia also claimed Portugal's scalp en route to winning the European crown in 1976. The Czechoslovakians defeated Portugal 5-0 in Prague then earned a 1-1 away draw in the tournament's preliminary group stage.

- The overall record between Czechoslovakia and Portugal was three wins apiece from nine matches.

- Ricardo Quaresma scored both Portugal goals when they defeated the Czech Republic 2-1 in the final of the UEFA European Under-16 Championship in May 2000. Raul Meireles was also in the Portugal team while Tomáš Sivok featured for the Czechs.

- Portugal pair Ricardo Carvalho and Paulo Ferreira are defensive colleagues of Czech goalkeeper Petr Čech at Chelsea FC. Portugal full-back Bosingwa will join that trio at Stamford Bridge after the finals.
- Portugal's Cristiano Ronaldo headed the opening goal of May's UEFA Champions League final between Manchester United FC and Chelsea past Čech. The Czech goalkeeper later saved a penalty from Ronaldo but was beaten by another from Nani as Chelsea lost the deciding shoot-out.
- Czech internationals Tomáš Galásek and Jan Polák were members of the 1. FC Nürnberg side that ran out surprise 3-2 winners against a VfB Stuttgart team including Fernando Meira in the 2007 German Cup final.
- Čech kept clean sheets for AC Sparta Praha in home (2-0) and away (1-0) wins against FC Porto in the 2001/02 UEFA Champions League second group stage. Libor Sionko scored in both games against a Porto team that included Ricardo Carvalho and Deco.
- Meireles and Quaresma both scored past Čech in FC Porto's 2006/07 UEFA Champions League first knockout round tie against Chelsea. Meireles struck the opening goal in the 1-1 first-leg draw, Quaresma the opener in Porto's subsequent 2-1 loss in the return.
- Portugal's Cristiano Ronaldo scored his first hat-trick for Manchester United FC in January this year in a 6-0 win against a Newcastle United FC side featuring Czech defender David Rozehnal.
- The Czech Republic's best performance in their three previous UEFA European Championship finals appearances was in 1996, when they reached the final. As part of the former Czechoslovakia, they were European champions in 1976.
- Portugal's own best performance in four previous appearances came at UEFA EURO 2004™, where they finished runners-up on home soil.
- This is the 13th edition of the UEFA European Championship and the eighth edition that features a final tournament with a group phase.

Match facts

CZECH REPUBLIC

UEFA EURO 2008™ statistics

- Two Czech Republic players appeared in all 12 matches in qualifying Group D: Jaroslav Plašil and David Rozehnal., and both also featured against Switzerland.
- Two of the final 23-man squad did not feature in qualifying: Václav Svěrkoš and Rudolf Skácel, although the former came on in the first Group A game.
- Jan Koller struck six goals in qualifying, with David Healy of Northern Ireland finishing as the top scorer on 13 goals.
- Koller provided four assists with Slovakia's Ján Kozák leading the way in that regard with seven.
- The Czech Republic striker also committed 36 fouls in qualifying, more than any other player.
- In qualifying Koller was caught offside 19 times with Healy the most penalised player in that respect having been flagged on 27 occasions.
- The Czech Republic managed 27 qualifying goals at an average of 2.25 goals per game. Germany finished as the highest scorers with 35 goals.
- Karel Brückner's side conceded only five times, the best defensive record in qualifying along with France and the Netherlands.
- The Czechs had 85 shots wide in qualifying, fewer only than Portugal (112 shots) and Germany (89).
- Of the 16 sides at UEFA EURO 2008™ the Czech Republic committed the most fouls in qualifying having been penalised on 187 occasions. Scotland led the way overall having conceded 203 fouls.
- The Czechs nevertheless collected only 14 yellow cards in qualifying, more only than Croatia (seven) and France (eight).

Latest information

• Saturday 7 June: Switzerland 0-1 Czech Republic (Svěrkoš 71)

Svěrkoš crashed the party for co-hosts Switzerland by scoring the only goal of the UEFA EURO 2008™ curtain-raiser in Basel. The Czech substitute struck after 71 minutes to defeat a home side who came closest to rescuing a Group A point when Johan Vonlanthen's shot hit the underside of the crossbar late on.

• Czech coach Brückner said: "We did a good job. Three points from the first game is a great start and a great boost. However, we can play much better as this was by no means our best performance. I brought on Václav Svěrkoš for Jan Koller because we hadn't really done enough going forward and you need quicker players later in a game. It turned into a good substitution."

• With Tomáš Rosický ruled out of the finals with a hamstring injury, Tomáš Ujfaluši wore the captain's armband.

Injury news

• Zdeněk Pospěch watched the game on television in the Czech Republic's base in Seefeld as he recovered from flu. He was still awake to congratulate his team-mates on their midnight return, and has since returned to training.

• Daniel Pudil was ruled out of the finals when he broke his hand as he celebrated SK Slavia Praha's league triumph. Skácel was drafted in to replace him.

Friendly results

30.05.2008 Czech Republic 3-1 Scotland (Sionko 2, Kadlec)

27.05.2008 Czech Republic 2-0 Lithuania (Koller 2)

26.03.2008 Denmark 1-1 Czech Republic (Koller)

06.02.2008 Czech Republic 0-2 Poland

Miscellaneous

• Often substituted in the closing stages with games already decided, Koller is unused to being replaced as part of a tactical switch, as was the case against the Swiss. Indeed, experienced Czech commentators could recall only one other occasion – against Northern Ireland in 2001.

• Pavel Nedvěd watched the win against Switzerland from the stands, while Vladimír Šmicer worked as a TV reporter in Basel and the injured Rosický was doing punditry work in Prague.

• Karel Poborský's famous lob against Portugal at EURO '96™ has been voted the best individual goal in the latest Carlsberg Goal of the Day poll on euro2008.com.

Domestic information

• Tomáš Sivok and Michal Kadlec both won the Czech Cup with AC Sparta Praha, Kadlec scoring the decisive penalty in the shoot-out that followed a goalless draw against FC Slovan Liberec in the final.

• Sivok had been at Sparta on loan from Udinese Calcio, but on the eve of the finals he signed a four-year deal with Beşiktaş JK.

• Stanislav Vlček claimed a Czech 1. Liga winners' medal with SK Slavia Praha despite leaving to join RSC Anderlecht in January.

• Vlček had the unusual pleasure of winning trophies with different clubs in the same season as an Anderlecht side also including compatriot Jan Polák won the Belgian Cup. Polák scored in the 3-2 win against KAA Gent in the final.

• In England, Milan Baroš lifted the FA Cup after joining Portsmouth FC from Olympique Lyonnais in January.

• After helping ACF Fiorentina claim a UEFA Champions League qualifying place, Ujfaluši announced he will leave on a free transfer this summer "I still have to decide which club, but I will certainly move to Spain," he said.

PORTUGAL

UEFA EURO 2008™ statistics

• Portugal scored 24 goals in qualifying at an average of 1.71 per game. Germany led the way overall having found the net 35 times.

• Of the teams who qualified for UEFA EURO 2008™ only Poland (12 goals) and Turkey (eleven) conceded more than Portugal's total of ten.

- Portugal had 101 shots on goal at an average of 7.71 per game in qualifying, more than any other side. They also had the most shots wide having missed the target 112 times, eight per game on average.
- Only Spain, with 110, won more corners in qualifying than Portugal's total of 103.
- Of the teams who qualified for UEFA EURO 2008™ only the Czech Republic, with 187, committed more fouls than Portugal's total of 169.
- Ricardo played all 1,260 minutes in qualifying Group A, with Cristiano Ronaldo missing only one of the 14 games, and both also featured against Turkey.
- Of the final 23-man squad, only Nuno Espírito Santo and Rui Patrício did not feature in qualifying.
- Ronaldo was Portugal's top scorer in qualifying with eight goals, five more than Nuno Gomes and Simão. Northern Ireland's David Healy finished as the highest scorer overall having struck 13 times.
- Ronaldo also had the most shots on goal overall in qualifying with 31 attempts on target.
- The Portugal forward was fouled 48 times in qualifying, fewer only than Andy Selva of San Marino's total of 53.
- Ronaldo also had more shots wide than any other player in qualifying having missed the target 24 times. Ricardo Quaresma was third on that list with 15 shots wide while Nuno Gomes missed 14 times, two more than Deco.

Latest information

• Saturday 7 June: Portugal 2-0 Turkey (Pepe 61, Raul Meireles 90)

Losers on the opening day in 2004, Portugal made a sure-footed start this time as Pepe and substitute Raul Meireles secured all three points at the Stade de Genève. Nuno Gomes also rattled the woodwork twice.

- Coach Luiz Felipe Scolari said: "When a team are dynamic, working together and supporting each other but don't win, then there is no reason to criticise them. In this case we did win and we are on the right path. We are 50 per cent of the way towards qualifying. I have taken part in a few tournaments and I know how important it is to win the first match. We are going to keep up this rhythm and are going to be confident, but without getting overconfident."
- When Portugal skipper Nuno Gomes was replaced by Nani after 69 minutes, Ronaldo took over as captain. "When Nuno went off I asked him to give Cristiano the armband to give him extra motivation," said Scolari. "That's exactly what happened. It gave him a lift. We got an extra dribble, an extra pass and an extra goal."

Friendly results

31.05.2008: Portugal 2-0 Georgia (João Moutinho, Simão)

26.03.2008: Portugal 1-2 Greece (Nuno Gomes)

06.02.2008: Italy 3-1 Portugal (Quaresma)

Injury news

- Deco (fatigue) and Bosingwa (thigh) were both fit enough to start against Turkey.
- Second-choice goalkeeper Quim was ruled out of the finals after fracturing his right wrist in training on Friday. The SL Benfica custodian was replaced by 34-year-old Espírito Santo of FC Porto.

Miscellaneous

- When the squad landed at Geneva airport on 1 June they were given a memorable welcome by some of the 174,000 Portuguese citizens residing in Switzerland. A motorcade of 600 Portuguese followed the team bus by motorcycle to their training base, while others lined the streets waving red-and-green flags. An estimated 10,000 fans were waiting to greet the players in Neuchatel.

Domestic information

- Four members of the squad were in the Porto side that claimed the club's 23rd Liga title; Bosingwa, Bruno Alves, Quaresma and Raul Meireles. Porto were beaten in the Portuguese Cup final, however, slipping to a 2-0 extra-time defeat by a Sporting Clube de Portugal team that included Rui Patrício, João Moutinho and Miguel Veloso.
- Ronaldo and Nani helped Manchester United FC to a UEFA Champions League and Premier League double in 2007/08, the former scoring 42 goals for the club in all competitions. Ronaldo finished as both the top scorer in the UEFA Champions League, with eight goals, and the Premier League, where he struck 31 times.
- In Spain, Pepe claimed a Primera División winners medal in his first season with Real Madrid CF, even if an injury-blighted start to the campaign limited him to 19 league appearances.

Head coach

Czech Republic: Karel Brückner

Date of birth: 13 November 1939

Nationality: Czech

Playing career: SK Sigma Olomouc, FC Baník Ostrava

Coaching career: SK Sigma Olomouc (five times), FK Prostějov, 1. FC Brno, Czech Republic Under-21 (twice), MŠK Žilina, FC Baník Ostrava, FK Drnovice, AŠK Inter Bratislava, Czech Republic

Karel Brückner seems to know exactly what makes one of Europe's most enigmatic football nations tick. Having worked with many of the Czech Republic squad for a decade, first as Under-21 coach and now with the seniors, Brückner has an impressive record of achievement that he maintained during qualifying for UEFA EURO 2008™. The Czechs advanced winners of Group D, finishing ahead of a Germany side whom they defeated 3-0 in Munich to secure qualification in style.

Under Brückner's guidance they came close to reaching the final of UEFA EURO 2004™ too, losing to Greece in the semi-finals. Despite their first-round exit at the 2006 FIFA World Cup, where their prospects were hit by injury problems, Brückner immediately agreed a new two-year contract, although he will step down after this summer's finals.

By no means an outstanding player, Brückner made his name as a coach with hometown team SK Sigma Olomouc, leading them to the top division in the former Czechoslovakia in 1984. He took Sigma to the quarter-finals of the UEFA Cup in 1991/92 where they succumbed to Real Madrid CF. Spells at FK Drnovice and Slovakian side AŠK Inter Bratislava followed but he returned to Olomouc in 1995, leading them to second place in the Czech top flight - their best ever finish - before being hired by the Football Association of the Czech Republic in 1997.

He moulded the Czech U21 side into a force but by the time they won the UEFA European Under-21 Championship in Switzerland in 2002, Brückner – nicknamed Klekí Petra for his resemblance to a native American teacher in a popular Czech television show – had replaced Jozef Chovanec as senior national team coach. Since then, Brückner's judgement has rarely failed him. Still living in Olomouc, the veteran continues to incorporate the best of the young talent at his disposal. His side shone at UEFA EURO 2004™ and will hope to do the same four years on.

Portugal: Luiz Felipe Scolari

Date of birth: 9 November 1948

Nationality: Brazilian

Playing career: SER Caxias, EC Juventude, EC Novo Hamburgo, SC Corinthians

Coaching career: Centro Sportivo Alagoano, EC Juventude (twice), Brasil de Pelotas (twice), Al-Shabab, Grêmio Foot-ball Porto Alegre (twice), Goiás SC, Qadsia Sports Club (twice), Kuwait, Criciúma EC, Al-Ahli, Júbilo Iwata, SE Palmeiras, Cruzeiro EC, Brazil, Portugal

Credited by many as the man who rescued Brazilian football when the national team were at a low ebb, Luiz Felipe Scolari is hoping he can go one step better in his second UEFA European Championship campaign with Portugal.

The stage seemed set for the Brazilian to lead the Portuguese to glory on home soil when they breezed into the final of UEFA EURO 2004™ but, just as they had done in the opening game of the finals, Greece spoiled the party by winning 1-0. Four years on, Portugal will return to the continental finals having finished second behind Poland in Group A. The UEFA EURO 2004™ runners-up performed impressively at the 2006 FIFA World Cup, seeing off the Netherlands and England before losing 1-0 to France in the semi-finals. It was the country's best showing since 1966 and Scolari agreed a new two-year deal shortly after. It took a change to coaching in 1982 for Scolari to make an impact at the highest level. His reputation was established when he won the Copa Libertadores with Grêmio Foot-ball Porto Alegre in 1995 and SE Palmeiras four years later.

His aggressive style was not such a big hit with the Brazilian public after he took charge of the national team. Indeed, after barely squeezing through qualifying for the 2002 FIFA World Cup, his promise that Brazil would reach the semi-finals was greeted with derision. However, he was to prove true to his word and more as, despite leaving out Romário, a side featuring Ronaldo, Ronaldinho and Rivaldo overcame Germany in the final in Japan.

Kyros Vassaras is a regular in the UEFA Champions League. He was also one of the UEFA EURO 2004™ fourth officials, before taking charge, on home soil, of the Olympic final between Argentina and Paraguay.

The travel agent, who is married with a son, from Thessaloniki started refereeing in 1984, eleven years before his first top-flight match. "My father Antonios was a FIFA referee," he said. "I watched him from a very young age. He told me I should start refereeing as early as possible, as this would give me the chance to take part in major competitions if I was good enough. But he was tough with me – he encouraged me, but he would have told me to stop if he had thought I wasn't going to make a career out of it. After two years, he told me that I was on the right road and gave me every help."

The water sports enthusiast received his FIFA badge in 1998 and has been involved in the 1998 UEFA European Under-16 Championship, the 1999 FIFA U-17 World Championship, in which he took charge of the final, and the 2002 World Cup finals, in addition to serving as a fourth official at UEFA EURO 2000™. His most high-profile club fixtures to date are first-leg contests in the 2004/05 and 2006/07 UEFA Champions League semi-finals, and the 2007/08 UEFA Cup semi-final first leg between Rangers FC and ACF Fiorentina. A domestic highlight was the 2007 Greek Cup final in which Larissa FC defeated Panathinaikos FC 2-1.

Competition facts

UEFA European Championship: Did you know?

- Only three sides have ever won the UEFA European Championship on home soil: Spain (1964), Italy (1968) and France (1984).
- No side has ever retained the trophy, and no player has appeared in two victorious finals.
- Since 1980, when the tournament became an eight-team event, the hosts have only failed to reach the semi-finals – or better – twice. Italy finished second in Group 2 in 1980, when only the top side in each section progressed to the final, and in 2000 Belgium – co-hosts with the Netherlands, who did reach the semi-finals – came third in their section.
- UEFA EURO 2008™ is Germany's tenth successive UEFA European Championship final tournament, more appearances than any other side – they last missed out as West Germany in 1968. The Netherlands are taking part in the finals for the sixth successive edition.
- Italy are bidding to become only the third team to hold the UEFA European Championship and FIFA World Cup at the same time. West Germany won the European title in 1972 and added the world crown two years later, while France claimed the 1998 World Cup and UEFA EURO 2000™.
- A total of 15 players appeared in both those finals; for West Germany, Sepp Maier, Franz Beckenbauer, Hans-Georg Schwarzenbeck, Paul Breitner, Uli Hoeness and Gerd Müller and France's Fabien Barthez, Marcel Desailly, Bixente Lizarazu, Lilian Thuram, Didier Deschamps, Yuri Djorkaeff, Patrick Vieira, Zinédine Zidane and Christophe Dugarry.
- Having played in Manchester United FC's UEFA Champions League final victory in Moscow on 21 May, Edwin van der Sar, Patrice Evra, Nani and Cristiano Ronaldo can join the exclusive band of five players who have appeared in European Champion Clubs' Cup and UEFA European Championship final victories in the same year. Luis Suárez achieved the feat with FC Internazionale Milano and Spain in 1964, while in 1988 PSV Eindhoven quartet Hans van Breukelen, Ronald Koeman, Barry van Aerle and Gerald Vanenburg were all in the victorious Netherlands side.
- Wim Kieft and Nicolas Anelka won the European Cup with PSV and Real Madrid CF in 1988 and 2000 respectively yet remaining on the bench for the Netherlands' and France's European Championship triumphs in those years. Anelka's Madrid and France team-mate from 2000, Christian Karembou, holds the unique position of being an unused substitute in both final victories in the same year.
- A total of ten players have been UEFA European Championship final losers after appearing in a European Cup victory: Sepp Maier, Hans-Georg Schwarzenbeck, Franz Beckenbauer and Uli Hoeness (1976, FC Bayern München and West Germany) and Paulo Ferreira, Ricardo Carvalho, Nuno Valente, Costinha, Maniche and Deco (2004, FC Porto and Portugal).
- Conversely six Chelsea players – Petr Čech, Claude Makelele, Carvalho, Michael Ballack, Florent Malouda and Anelka – could join a list of four players who followed European Cup final defeat with EURO victory in the same year: Ignacio Zoco and Amancio Amaro (1964, Real Madrid and Spain) and Manny Kaltz and Hörst Hrubesch (1980, Hamburger SV and West Germany).

UEFA information

'Wonderful atmosphere'

UEFA President Michel Platini has joined millions of football fans in Europe and around the world in heralding the long-awaited arrival of UEFA EURO 2008™. "As President of UEFA I am very proud that this tournament is kicking off," he said in Basel. "UEFA and EURO 2008 SA under COO Martin Kallen have been working hard for very many years to ensure the best possible conditions for players, spectators and the media. Everything is being done to ensure that there will be a wonderful atmosphere for the fans coming to Austria and Switzerland from the whole of Europe. What is really important are the feelings and emotions that will be felt by the spectators, thanks to the games that they will be watching. There is going to be a lot of drama, there will be pain and joy, and the best team will be the winner. I also hope that football will be the winner. I'm expecting wonderful emotions and I'm passing the ball on to all the players, who are key to our success."

Zero tolerance for racism

The football family and anti-racism campaigners have joined forces at the start of UEFA EURO 2008™ to deliver a strong message: racist conduct, discrimination and intolerance will have no place at the tournament, or in the future. A key gathering in Basel brought together representatives of UEFA and the FARE (Football Against Racism in Europe) network for a reception featuring former players, administrators and non-government organisations to signal the beginning of a three-week anti-discrimination programme at UEFA EURO 2008™. The Unite Against Racism programme, run by the FARE network with UEFA's backing, as well as with the support of the professional players' union FIFPro, will include an advertising spot broadcast at every game – Different Languages, One Goal: No To Racism – pitch-side boards and activities with fans, culminating in high-profile activities on the field at the semi-finals in Basel and Vienna on 25 and 26 June.

Technical team

UEFA has announced the make-up of the expert team who will study the UEFA EURO 2008™ technical and tactical aspects in detail. The UEFA Technical Team will consist of nine football technicians, all of whom have vast experience in the coaching and technical field. They will be split into two groups, one based in Switzerland and comprising Jerzy Engel (Poland), György Mezey (Hungary), Morten Olsen (Denmark) and Holger Osieck (Germany). The other group will be located in Austria and consists of FIFA Technical Director Jean-Paul Brigger (Switzerland), Roy Hodgson (England), Gérard Houllier (France) and Jozef Vengloš (Slovakia). UEFA technical director Andy Roxburgh will lead the group's activities in both countries.

Anti-doping drive

In the run-up to UEFA EURO 2008™ an unprecedented programme of out-of-competition doping controls was carried out – including blood testing – and all 160 samples examined at the World Anti-Doping Authority (WADA) accredited laboratory in Seibersdorf produced negative results. The results were communicated to UEFA's 12 doping control officers (DCOs) when they met in Lausanne on 6 June. The programme of blood controls alongside the usual urine samples, which will continue with the testing of two players from each side in every finals match at the Swiss doping analysis laboratory in Lausanne, is another innovation for UEFA.

Support for fans

The "fan embassies" project is designed to provide support to fans during UEFA EURO 2008™. Apart from facilities at each of the eight venues where fans can go for assistance, there will also be mobile fan embassies moving from stadium to stadium. The project is being run by people familiar with the fan scene in the participating countries, together with local fan experts. It is hoped that this co-operation will also be put to use well after UEFA EURO 2008™. The project leaders are UEFA's long-standing partners FARE (Football Against Racism in Europe) in co-operation with the FSI (Football Supporters International), Fairplay-vidc (Austria's Vienna Institute for international Dialogue and Co-operation) and Projektorganisation Öffentliche Hand (a Swiss state project organisation).

Location of fan embassies:

Austria: Vorplatz Museumsquartier (Vienna); Fancamp, Messegelände (Klagenfurt); Ferdinand-Hanusch-Platz (Salzburg); Fancamp Innsbruck (Innsbruck).

Switzerland: Rathausplatz (Zurich); Marktplatz (Basel); Waisenhausplatz (Berne); Place du Rhône (Geneva).

Competition information

• Format: The UEFA EURO 2008™ group stage draw in Lucerne on 2 December 2007 divided the 14 qualifiers and co-hosts Austria and Switzerland into four groups of four. Each country plays each other once. Three points are awarded for a win, one point for a draw and no points for a defeat. If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied to determine the rankings:

- a) number of points obtained in the matches among the teams in question;
- b) goal difference from the matches among the teams in question;
- c) number of goals scored in the matches among the teams in question (if more than two teams finish level on points);
- d) goal difference in all group matches;
- e) number of goals scored in all the group matches;
- f) coefficient from the qualifying competitions for the 2006 FIFA World Cup and UEFA EURO 2008™ (points obtained divided by number of matches played);
- g) Fair Play conduct of teams in the final tournament;
- h) drawing of lots

• Key dates: The quarter-finals are played on 19, 20, 21 and 22 June in the following format:

Match 1 Winner Group A v Runner-up Group B

Match 2 Winner Group B v Runner-up Group A

Match 3 Winner Group C v Runner-up Group D

Match 4 Winner Group D v Runner-up Group C

The semi-finals are played on 25 and 26 June:

Winner Match 1 v Winner Match 2

Winner Match 3 v Winner Match 4

The final is played at the Ernst-Happel-Stadion in Vienna on Sunday 29 June, with the winners of Semi-final 1 being designated as the home team for administrative purposes.

• Disciplinary information: As a rule, a player who is sent off is suspended for the next match in the competition. The Control and Disciplinary Body is entitled to augment this punishment. In the case of repeated cautions, a player is suspended for one match after two cautions in two different matches. In May, UEFA's Executive Committee decided at its meeting in Moscow to cancel single yellow cards after the quarter-finals of UEFA EURO 2008™. Consequently, a situation will not arise whereby players receive a second yellow card of the tournament in the semi-finals and are suspended for the final as a result.

• Player eligibility: The 16 participants in the final tournament had to submit a final list of 23 players – of which three had to be goalkeepers – at least ten days before the opening match of the tournament, on 7 June. In the event of a serious injury to a listed player before his team's first match in the final tournament, the player in question could be substituted only if a doctor from the UEFA Medical Committee and the team doctor both confirmed the injury was serious enough to prevent the player taking part.

• Financial information: UEFA has earmarked a total of €184m for the 16 teams competing in UEFA EURO 2008™ compared to €129m at UEFA EURO 2004™. The 16 teams in the final tournament will each receive a participating fee of €7.5m with a performance bonus of €1m for a win during the group stage and €500,000 for a draw. The eight teams who reach the quarter-finals will all receive an additional payment of €2m, with the four teams who progress to the semi-finals collecting an extra €3m. For the teams who take the field for the final at the Ernst-Happel-Stadion on 29 June, the runners-up will receive €4.5m with the winners collecting €7.5m. Therefore, if the victorious side at the final win all three of their group games, they would collect a maximum of €23m.

Legend

:: All-time statistics

The all-time record of the competing teams in the UEFA European Championship.

Final tournament: The UEFA European Championship was a four-team event in 1960, 1964, 1968, 1972 and 1976. From 1980 it was expanded to an eight-team finals and remained in that format in 1984, 1988 and 1992 until 1996, when the current 16-team format was adopted.

Goals for/against: Goals totals include the outcome of disciplinary decisions (eg match forfeits when a 3-0 result is determined). Goals totals do not include goals scored from the penalty mark during a penalty shoot-out after a tie ended in a draw.

:: Squad list

The eligible list of players ordered first by playing position and then numeric order.
