

Hand-drawn map of the Kola Peninsula and surrounding regions. The map shows the Barents Sea to the north, the White Sea to the west, and the Gulf of Finland to the south. Major cities like Murmansk, Petrozavodsk, and Sestroretsk are marked. The map includes labels for Lake Onega, Lake Ladoga, the Neva River, and various smaller lakes and bays. At the top left, there are handwritten notes in red ink: '2010.8.6' and '122400'. Below these, there are several other numbers and letters, possibly representing coordinates or specific locations.
