Internazionale vs Dnipro Match background

FC Internazionale Milano can make sure of a place in the UEFA Europa League round of 32 if they avoid defeat against FC Dnipro Dnipropetrovsk on matchday five.

Form guide

• Inter won 1-0 at Dnipro on matchday one and remain unbeaten in seven games against Ukrainian sides (W4 D3); Dnipro have lost all three of their previous UEFA matches in Italy.

• Inter conceded their first 2014/15 UEFA Europa League goal in the 1-1 matchday four draw against AS Saint-Etienne. Prior to that, they had gone five games without conceding since entering the competition in the play-offs.

• Inter are unbeaten in nine European home contests (W5 D4); Dnipro are unbeaten in their last three UEFA Europa League away fixtures (W1 D2).

Trivia and links

• Dnipro's Portuguese winger Bruno Gama is one of the three most fouled players in the group stage; he, Alexander Buttner (FC Dinamo Moskva) and Richard Almeida (Qarabag FK) were infringed against 15 times each over the first four matchdays.

• Dnipro have been shown more yellow cards than any side in the group stage – 18 in total.

• Dnipro's Czech defender Ondrej Mazuch spent two seasons in Italy with ACF Fiorentina (2007-09) but made only two first-team appearances, in a Coppa Italia tie against Ascoli Calcio 1898. Inter's Pablo Osvaldo and Zdravko Kuzmanovic were among his Fiorentina team-mates.

The coaches

• In charge at Inter since May 2013, Walter Mazzarri was dismissed as Inter coach on 14 November after a disappointing start in Serie A.

• Inter's new boss is Roberto Mancini, who coached the club from 2004-08, winning three Serie A titles and two national cups. A forward for UC Sampdoria and SS Lazio, he was capped over 30 times for Italy, with recent coaching adventures taking him to Manchester City FC – where he won the 2011/12 English title – and Galatasaray AS.

• Dnipro coach since 2014, Myron Markevych started out as a midfielder with hometown club FC Karpaty Lviv, and while his playing career was not a huge success, he served Karpaty in four spells as a coach before a lengthy stint at FC Metalist Kharkiv earned him a reputation for attacking football. He briefly coached Ukraine in 2010.

Internazionale vs Dnipro Previous meeting

FC Internazionale Milano wasted no time in punishing Ruslan Rotan's red card as Danilo D'Ambrosio earned them the UEFA Europa League spoils against FC Dnipro Dnipropetrovsk.

Dnipro consigned FC Metalist Kharkiv to their worst home defeat in over five years on Saturday and looked set to pick up where they left off when Yevhen Konoplyanka tested Samir Handanovic inside 20 seconds. It was a false dawn, however. The first half was cagey, with Inter slowing the tempo and seeking to use guile to open up their opponents; Dnipro were more muscular, more direct. Chances were at a premium, however.

After the interval it opened up. Fredy Guarín squandered a fine chance after Hernanes's lovely dinked cross, then Denys Boyko produced a marvellous double save to deny the surging D'Ambrosio and Mauro Icardi. The Ukrainian hosts responded well, with Konoplyanka firing just wide, but when midfield enforcer Ruslan Rotan saw red they lost the initiative.

Inter soon took it, D'Ambrosio latching onto Artem Fedetskiy's clearance, dribbling towards goal and firing in the only goal of the Group F game.

FC Dnipro Dnipropetrovsk 0-1 FC Internazionale Milano

Goals: 0-1 D'Ambrosio 71

FC Internazionale Milano: Handanovic, Juan, Icardi, Guarín, Campagnaro, Vidic, Kuzmanovic (62 Osvaldo), Dodo, D'Ambrosio, Hernanes (76 Jonathan), M'Vila

FC Dnipro Dnipropetrovsk: Boyko, Mazuch, Kravchenko (67 Shakhov), Kankava, Konoplyanka, Strinic, Zozulya (79 N. Kalinic), Bruno Gama, Douglas, Rotan, Fedetskiy

Mancini returns to Inter

Former Italy forward Roberto Mancini has been named FC Internazionale Milano coach for a second time. His appointment follows today's departure of Walter Mazzarri after a disappointing start to the 2014/15 Serie A campaign for the UEFA Europa League contenders.

Mancini, 49 – who won three successive Serie A titles, two Coppa Italia trophies and an Italian Super Cup during his four-year reign at Inter between 2004 and 2008 – has signed a deal until June 2017.

"Our aim is to be part of the European elite again and this is the reason why I am happy to welcome back Roberto Mancini," said club president Erick Thohir. "His track record with Inter, but also with the other clubs he coached, speaks for itself. His international experience and hunger for success will take the club to a new level."

UEFA Europa League matchday one Facts and figures

With their 6-0 victory at home to Aalborg BK, FC Steaua Bucuresti became the first team in the history of the UEFA Europa League to score six goals in a game. Their achievement was swiftly matched by PAOK FC, who ran out 6-1 winners at home to FC Dinamo Minsk. There had been 1,037 matches played in the competition before Steaua and PAOK kicked off.

• While 6-0 and 6-1 are now the two biggest winning scorelines in UEFA Europa League history, BSC Young Boys managed to match the old record of 5-0 with their home victory against SK Slovan Bratislava.

• Steaua set another competition record as Claudiu Keresu registered the UEFA Europa League's fastest hat-trick. His three goals between the 61st and 72nd minutes took the record away from Liverpool FC's Steven Gerrard, who struck a 13-minute treble against SSC Napoli in 2010/11.

• Matchday one was a night for quickfire hat-tricks as PAOK's Stefanos Athanasiadis (18 minutes) claimed the third fastest in UEFA Europa League history and GNK Dinamo Zagreb's El Arbi Hilal Soudani (29) the fifth fastest.

• Fourteen teams made their group stage debut on matchday one and only one managed a victory, FC Dinamo Moskva prevailing 2-1 at Panathinaikos FC. It was a sobering night generally for the newcomers, with eight of them losing and the 14 sides between them managing just six goals while conceding 31.

• Only one nation has a representative in the group stage for the first time, Finland and HJK Helsinki (who lost 2-0 at FC København). That means 36 of UEFA's 54 member associations have now supplied at least one team to the competition during its six years of existence.

• PSV Eindhoven are the sole club to have been involved in all six UEFA Europa League campaigns, and have also played more games in the competition than any other side, the 1-0 home success over Estoril-Praia being their 43rd. It was their 23rd victory, which puts them joint second in the all-time listings alongside Club Atletico de Madrid, two wins behind SL Benfica.

• Luuk de Jong, who converted PSV's winning penalty against Estoril, became the first player with a UEFA Europa League goal tally in double figures to score for three different clubs. His first goal for PSV followed eight for FC Twente and two with VfL Borussia Mönchengladbach.

• FC Salzburg's Jonatan Soriano, the competition's top marksman in 2013/14, got off the mark with his team's second equaliser in the 2-2 draw with Celtic FC – the competition's 2,700th goal.

• Ante Coric became, at 17 years and 157 days, the UEFA Europa League's fourth youngest goalscorer in Dinamo Zagreb's 5-1 win at home to FC Astra Giurgiu. The youngest scorer is still Romelu Lukaku, who netted for RSC Anderlecht against AFC Ajax in the inaugural 2009/10 competition aged 16 years and 218 days.

• There are ten national title holders in this season's UEFA Europa League field, but just three of them – Croatia's Dinamo Zagreb, Poland's Legia Warszawa and Romania's Steaua – mustered an opening win. There were defeats for the champions of the Czech Republic (AC Sparta Praha), Denmark (AaB), Finland (HJK) and Slovakia (Slovan), while those from Azerbaijan (Qarabag FK), Austria (Salzburg) and Scotland (Celtic) all drew, the latter two against each other.

• Of the six sides that qualified automatically for the group stage, the three playing at home – Everton FC, ACF Fiorentina and holders Sevilla FC – all won and the three playing away – EA Guingamp, VfL Wolfsburg and Estoril – all lost.

• There were no victories for any of the four teams who began the campaign in the second qualifying round. While Dinamo Minsk and HNK Rijeka were both beaten away from home, FC Krasnodar (1-1 at LOSC Lille) and Asteras Tripolis FC (1-1 at Besiktas JK) picked up a point on their travels.

• Italy, with four clubs, have the largest number of representatives in this term's group stage, and the Serie A contingent got off to an excellent start, with Fiorentina, Napoli and FC Internazionale all winning and debutants Torino FC drawing away. The next best represented countries are Belgium, France, Greece and Ukraine with three teams apiece.
